

This is another way the FCC shows its Federal power for their own reasons! I think they should let us keep our "Do Not Call" list being that its been so effective for the residents of N.J.; it doesn't make logical sense for them to make N.J. and other states not make and strenthing their own version of the list. Kudos FCC in showing me how this is a business for your dept.